

SUNDAY'S WASHINGTON HERALD

Will contain many special and interesting features in addition to its regular edition. It will be an ideal paper for the home. A partial list of its contents will be as follows:

MAGAZINE SECTION

John Walker Holcombe

A masterly article on the Electoral College, its prerogatives and possibilities.

A. D. Jacobson

Careful reviews of the latest books issued by the leading publishers of the country.

Kate Carew

Characteristic interview with Edward Gordon Craig, son of Ellen Terry.

May Mantou

Beautifully illustrated article on chic and simple negligees so suitable for the woman of to-day.

Galaxy of Writers

On subjects of particular interest to men who work with hand and brain.

Patterns and Embroidery

Designs especially suitable for new collars, with plain descriptions how to apply the designs.

Athletics on Ocean Liners

Illustrated article showing how passengers make a sea trip a round of healthy outdoor sport.

Boys and Girls

Describing the effect of riding clubs in the public schools of New York City.

Marion Harland

Common-sense views of incalculable value to the careful housewives and hints that will be a help to all readers.

James B. Morrow

Writes entertaining article on H. W. Belnap and his efforts to make railroad traveling safe.

Rene Bache

Tells of Dr. Bingham's discoveries in Titicaca, the most wonderful unexplored region in the New World. Many other articles of equal interest are in this section.

Readers' Magazine

This sixteen-page section is particularly attractive, as it contains much of local interest. "The Municipality of Washington," by Foxcroft Davis, is an article that will attract the attention of the whole country. Besides this, it contains the usual high-class serial and short stories.

SOCIETY SECTION

The social section of The Herald contains the latest and most accurate account of what is going on in the fashionable world, with personal mention of the doings of people known in Washington and its suburbs.

Music and Musicians

What is going on in this charmed circle is recounted by one who knows.

The Woman's Page

Well-known writers contribute to make this feature of value and help to all its readers.

Theaters

The stage has two pages devoted to the drama and list of coming attractions.

Other Features

Autoists, fraternal societies, and other articles of unusual interest gathered by experienced writers.

A Big Treat for the Children

The Herald has arranged a big surprise for all its school children readers. Sunday's Herald will tell you of this surprise, and we want every parent and school-teacher in Washington, as well as school child, to read the details as they will appear in a full-page announcement in next Sunday's Herald. In addition to other attractive benefits for the school children, one child will be given $25 in gold.

SPORTING SECTION

"How to Live to Be a Hundred"—The second installment of a series of articles by Physical Director Beckett, of the Y. M. C. A., deals with exercises and recreation necessary to a long and happy life. This exclusive feature is attracting widespread attention.

Georgetown vs. North Carolina—The Hilltoppers meet the famous Tarheels in Richmond Saturday for the last big game prior to the Virginia contest. William Peet, the sporting editor of The Washington Herald, will write the game and all its details for the Sunday pink section.

Big college football games—There is intense interest locally in the Harvard-Princeton game at Cambridge. The best football experts in the country will cover this game and others of minor importance for The Herald.

Bowling on local alleys—Mr. Al Machler, recognized as the leading bowling exponent in Washington, will have several columns of gossip and comment on the doings of the Capital pin knights. Mr. Machler's breezy style cannot fail to interest the pin spillers.

Horse racing and other sports—In addition to Mr. L. D. Sale's weekly Trotter and Pacer, the running tracks will be given generous space. Boxing, golf, and every other branch of sport, well written and newsy, will complete The Herald's pink sporting supplement on Sunday, making it the best in Washington.

THE NEWS SECTION

Special attention has been given to secure the latest cable advices on the tremendous war now raging in the Balkans. Much thought and study will be given to the usual political situation at home, which is expected to be partly cleared at the polls on Tuesday. Many of the leading articles on home and foreign affairs are illustrated with cuts from the latest photographs.

Financial and Real Estate

Special attention is given to this most important part of the daily newspaper. Mr. I. A. Fleming, the well-known financial writer, gives his current comment as well as a weekly review of the doings in the business world.

Sunday's Herald Is Always Interesting and Sometimes Intensely So

Court Gossip Bearing on Matters of General Interest

Reports are to be made by the court of the death of a well-known and very young man, who was a member of the House of Representatives. The death occurred at the residence of the deceased, who was a member of the House of Representatives. Queen Victoria created a tablet to King George in the nave of St. George's Chapel, with an inscription describing him as "the King of England."

CITY TO FIGHT STATE ASSESSMENT

Corporation Attorney Fisher instructed to Prepare Brief in Tax Case.

RECORD FOR MARRIAGE LICENSE

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 1.—Acting under orders from State Auditor R. Lee Moore, Charles H. Callahan, commissioner of revenue, to-day assessed the city of Alexandria for the year 1912, and the latter for $200,000. This means that the city will have to pay the State an annual tax of $200 on the two pieces of property.

The payment of such taxes will, however, be resisted by the city and a legal battle will follow. The assessments made for the year 1912, and the taxes are due December 1.

Following the assessment of the property, Mr. Callahan notified Corporation Attorney R. P. Fisher of his action and the latter took up the matter with the finance committee of city council. The committee instructed Mr. Fisher to prepare a petition to city council to be presented at its next meeting, looking to have the assessment set aside.

As soon as the necessary authority is granted him he will file a petition with the commonwealth's attorney to the corporation court on the ground of erroneous assessment.

Alexandria County, it is announced, will assess the lot recently purchased by the city as a school site, at Cameron and West Streets. Seven-eighths of the lot lies in Alexandria County. This matter, it is announced, shortly will be taken up by the finance committee of city council for consideration.

Cupid on the Job.
A total of fifty-two marriage licenses were issued during October by N. S. Greenaway, clerk of the corporation court. This is the record number of marriage licenses issued during any month in the history of the court. Of the number thirty-eight were to white and twelve to colored couples.

The clerk also recorded fifty-two deaths.

John L. Monroe has sold to John W. Monroe and wife a three-story brick dwelling house on the south side of Prince Street, between St. Asaph and Pitt Streets.

Samuel G. Brent has purchased from Dr. D. N. Rutz, two building lots in the east side of Washington Street, between Wythe and Madison Streets.

Leonard Walker, colored, was fined $20 in police court to-day for damaging a carriage belonging to James Duncan, a liveryman.

Walter Page, colored, driver of the vehicle, testified that Walker stoned it, breaking several panes.

Mrs. Jane Elizabeth Fairfax, wife of George R. Fairfax, died suddenly at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at her home at Accotink, Fairfax County. Her trouble was the cause of death. Besides her husband she is survived by several children. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon from her late residence. Interment will be at Accotink.

Owing to the inclement weather, patrons' day at the public schools here to-day was but slightly attended. A number of parents, however, visited the schools and watched the methods employed in teaching their offspring. Arrangements will be made for another patrons' day in the near future.

Freeman Frank Sanford, of the Southern Railway, who was injured yesterday by the overturning of an engine at Edsall Station, is reported considerably improved to-night.

With masses at 6:30 and 8:30 o'clock to-morrow morning, All Souls' Day will be celebrated at St. Mary's Catholic Church.

An official visit to Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows was paid to-night by Grand Master Berbeck, of the District of Columbia.

Representative Carlin addressed a Democratic rally at Herndon, Va., to-night. He was accompanied by several Alexandrians.

Wants Absolute Divorce.
Theodore F. Schumacher yesterday filed suit for absolute divorce from Esther King Schumacher, alleging misconduct and naming a co-respondent. They were married December 31, 1904, in this city, and have one child, whose custody is requested by the plaintiff.

ABE MARTIN SAYS:
Next t' a dyed mustache, nothin' gives a feller away quicker 'n run-over heels.

A feller is never a success as long as he admits it.

Open Until Nine o'Clock To-night.

$30,000 Stock of High-grade Furs AT HALF PRICE.

A Sale of Fur Coats, Fur Sets and Separate Pieces that Presents the Most Wonderful Array of Savings on Guaranteed Quality Furs Ever Known. Greatest in Scope and Variety—Matchless in Value-giving.

The warm weather that prevailed all during the month of October blasted the hopes of fur manufacturers for a big fur business. This condition, however, worked out greatly to your advantage, for it enabled us to secure thousands of dollars' worth of High-grade Furs at a tremendous sacrifice, and makes possible the most extraordinary values ever offered in Washington.

Fur weather is right on our heels—and every woman who intends buying a Fur Piece or a Fur Coat this winter should be here to-day to take advantage of the remarkable savings offered. The values in this sale will not be duplicated again, because it is impossible to replace on a rising market the furs bought for this sale for double the price we paid.

The variety of furs is practically unlimited, embracing, as it does, every pelt in popular favor this winter. Compare the prices in this sale with those offered by other stores in their Fur sales, and in every instance you will find ours to be from 10 to 25 per cent lower for the same or better values. Furthermore, we guarantee every Fur Coat and Fur Set in our vast stock, from the least expensive to the costliest, to wear satisfactorily.

If desired, we will lay aside until later any Piece of Fur or Fur Coat you may select, upon payment of a small deposit. Make selections of Furs for Christmas gifts now and save money!

It is a well-known fact that the cheap Coney and Hare Coats offered around town at low prices do not wear satisfactorily. That really to buy a Coney Fur Coat is like wasting money. In this sale we have excluded all Coney and Hare Coats and Sets. You will have the satisfaction of knowing that any coat bought in this sale will wear, and we hereby guarantee every garment for service and satisfaction.
